INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

- Friends of Cecil County Parks and Recreation Update – Thomas McFadden gave an update on the Friends. They continue to work on fundraising for therapeutic recreation equipment, Safetyville car replacements with logo wraps, transportation to get residents to activities and pop up play dates. They are also working to expand their brand in partnership with CCPR through Amazon Smile, a website and speaking engagements with various civic organizations. The next Friends meeting will be held on November 5th.
- General Board Member Update – The last tournament of the season was held on 11/16 & 11/17 with close to 60 teams each day. The North East High School turf field ribbon cutting was held on September 11th. CCPR is looking for coaches for 12 of the 17 schools for the basketball program. The Elementary School Movers soccer program started last month. Wolf Pack football is finishing up its season. Story Boards were installed at the Calvert Regional Park in partnership with CCPS. We'll also be installing Story Boards in partnership with the Cecil County Public Library. The YEA after school program at Bainbridge and Thompson Estates is doing well.
