Notice of the public hearing was published on March 24, 2021 and March 31, 2021.

Witnesses presenting testimony were sworn in by the Council Manager.

Charles R. Schaller, attorney for applicant, introduced Sean Davis and Amy DiPietro of Morris and Ritchie Associates, and Jim Gawthrop of York Building Products. Mr. Schaller presented the request for rezoning, based on a mistake in the Comprehensive Plan of 2011 and a change in the character of the neighborhood. He provided Exhibit A: PowerPoint presentation of thirteen slides, which he also provided copies.

Steve O'Connor, Acting Director of Land Use and Development Services, stated that the Planning and Zoning staff had recommended approval of both applications, based on the demonstration of a mistake in the Comprehensive Rezoning Plan. He stated that the Planning Commission also recommended approval of both applications, based on the demonstration of a mistake in the Comprehensive Rezoning Plan. He also presented the findings of facts on the applications.

Council questions and comments ensued. Mr. O'Connor clarified the difference between a "Suburban Transition" (ST) zoning and "Heavy Industrial" (M2) zoning. He also explained what a "Mineral Extraction" (MEB) was and its impact on the zoning.

Council President Meffley opened the public hearing for public comment.

William Ames, 223 Conistoga Street, Charlestown, commented that there should be a compromise so that Charlestown's rural atmosphere can be preserved.

Jen Marie, Charlestown, commented in opposition to the applications.

Loucretia Wood, Charlestown, Town Commissioner, commented in opposition.

Karl Fockler, Charlestown, Town President, commented in opposition and stated that the parcels were deliberately zoned Suburban Transition to provide adequate buffers. He also submitted three aerial views (2019, 2010, 2005), three photographs of current roadway, two photographs of overrun stormwater management ponds, and four zoning maps (1962, 1979, 1993, 2011) of the area; and requested that they should be included as exhibits.

Elizabeth Bolt, Charlestown, commented in opposition to the applications and stated that York has not taken care of their current stormwater management ponds.

Harold McCanick, Elk Neck, commented that testimonies should be time limited.

Vincent Sammons, North East, commented that York has ignored complaints of their neighbors and made large political contributions.

Lorie Seiffert, Charlestown, commented in opposition to the applications.

Suzanne Fockler, Charlestown, commented in opposition to the applications because of its impact on Charlestown.

Geoff Doyle, 28 Carpenter's Point Road, commented in opposition to the applications and stated that York does not take care of their stormwater runoff on neighbors.

Heidi Gaultney, Elkton, commented in opposition to the applications and stated that York does not take care of their stormwater runoff on neighbors.

Barbara Payne, 1721 W. Philadelphia Road, commented in opposition to the applications and stated that York will not fix current runoff onto her property.

Phyllis Kilby, Colora, commented that Suburban Transition parcels were approved by County Commissioners to buffer the Town of Charlestown.

Thomas McFadden, commented on his concern on the impact on water quality.

E.B. Fockler, Carpenter's Point Road, commented that the applicant failed to prove that there was a mistake in the Comprehensive Rezoning Plan.

Kimberly Lloyd, Charlestown, commented in opposition to the applications.

Council Manager Massey stated that the Town of Charlestown delivered a petition in opposition to the zoning requests that was signed by 325 persons.

Mr. Schaller provided concluding remarks on the rezoning applications.

Council questions and comments ensued. Mr. O'Connor clarified the size and nature of buffers on M2 parcels. He provided information about the difference between Suburban Transition and Heavy Industrial classifications. He explained the reasons that the staff recommended approval of the applications.

Council President Meffley concluded the public hearing and announced that the rezoning cases will be considered at the next legislative session on April 20, 2021.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

On motion made by Councilman Coutz, seconded by Vice President Gregory, the Council moved to approve the minutes of the legislative session of March 16, 2021. Motion was approved unanimously.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Jen Maria, Charlestown, commented in opposition to Rezoning Cases 2021-03 and 04. Loucretia Wood, Charlestown, congratulated Giulia Hodge on her leadership of CASA. Karl Fockler, Charlestown, commented that Council should follow the law in Section 33-5 regarding MEA district.

Barbara Payne, Charlestown, commented in opposition to Rezoning Cases 2021-03 and 2021-04.

Thomas McFadden, Charlestown, commented on the Cecil County Master Gardeners program and commended CASA.
